What you choose to be
Is how you choose to see
I look straight at you
But you don't look back at me
Walking down my street I see you everyday
A thousand times I come up to you
You run away from me with that look in your eyes
And now I realise that you don't really love me no
Chorus:
You just walk away from me
You take your leave of me
You walk away from me
Now I can't let you see
My tears, my tears
You will one day see
And it will be your cost
I can't give you up
My religion has been lost
Walking through my head I see you everyday
A thousand times I come up to you
You run away from me with that look in your eyes
And now I realise that you don't really love me no
Chorus
Woman, I wait here for ever
I'll try not to cause you pain
I'll try not to cause you pain
But when I see you
I'm all choked up, I can't breathe it's complicated
You know I'll be your lover if you let me
Chorus
