Drive by my house late at night
You can see it from the freeway above
No silhouette, but a light left on
Burnin' there for love, burnin' there for love

Smoke is risin' from the black
Comin' out my back door
I'm inside, sound asleep, a cigarette on the floor
Burnin' there for love, burnin' there for love

Well, I can still remember a couple of years ago
When the smoke and flame from our name
Was a burnin' house of love, a burnin' house of love
A burnin' house of love
Burnin' house of love, burnin' house of love

Oh, I can still remember a couple of years ago
When the smoke and flame from our name
Was a burnin' house of love, a burnin' house of love
A burnin' house of love

The rusty nail over our front door
Is where I hung our tears in the rain
I threw that horseshoe into the weeds
I seen what love can bring, I seen what love can bring

Now, you're in your bed and I'm in mine
On either side of town, I think I might take a little ride
And burn your love house down
Like a burnin' house of love, a burnin' house of love

I can still remember a couple of years ago
When the smoke and flame from our name
Was a burnin' house of love, a burnin' house of love
A burnin' house of love, burnin' house of love
Burnin' house of love, burnin' house of love
Burnin' house of love
