Wheels keep on rolling, mindless of our flight
Our sounds like in slumber, we head into the night
The city's so familiar, like a long lost friend
With open arms that shelter me and bring me home to them

And we're miles away
Always miles away, yeah
Rolling on down the highway
Living for the day
Seems I'm always miles away

Just outside of Memphis, where rock n' roll began
We say a prayer for Elvis, then on the road again
The mind begins to wander as memories unfold
The music on the radio reminds us of our homes

And we're miles away
Always miles away, yeah
Rolling on down the highway
Living for the day
Seems I'm always miles away
Sometimes it seems the road will never end
Sometimes it seems my only friend, yeah, yeah, yeah
What will tomorrow tell, I just can't seem to tell
Cos I'm always miles away, miles away

The one I left at home took his first steps today
I watch him on the video before I leave to play

Cos we're miles away
Always miles away
Rolling on down the highway
Living for the day
Seems I'm always miles and
Miles away
Always miles away, oh yeah
All of my life is rolling
I'm living just to play
Seems I'm always miles away
Yeah, seems I'm always miles away
Seems I'm always miles away

Miles away
