note: This song appears as a bonus track on the Japanese release of Can't Get There From Here.

I was so blind, led the life of a sinner
Livin' the lie was takin' it's toll
I looked in my eyes and saw Hell's invitation
I realized that I gave up my soul
Always so blind, can you see what we're doin'
A child has his innocence, but never his day

If the good die young, we're gonna live forever
Heaven and earth couldn't stand in our way
If the good die young, we're gonna live forever
And that's the price we're gonna pay

Searching for truth on a sea of deception
Find only a face of a child that's in pain
Another soul in a world of damnation
I see myself and the world ain't far behind
How do we stop the wheels of destruction?
The Heaven we're takin' is the Hell that we're makin'

Are we so blind, can we see what we're doin'
The Heaven you're taking is the Hell that you're makin'
