This song appears on The Blue EP (Japan).
It was released in the U.S. only on a single.

Oh, this is an old story, man

You can catch it if you want a ride
Don't you worry if it pass you by
You can catch it if you want a ride
Don't you worry if it pass you by
(Don't worry Baby)

Don't you know the reason why
On this train until you die
(Until you die, Baby)
The train I'm riding goes to God knows where
I don't know and I don't care
(Don't care)

The train I'm riding goes to God knows where
I don't know and I don't care
(Just don't care, Baby)
Ain't got money, then don't despair
You don't have to pay no fare
(It's a free ride, Baby)

Please now brother don't you ride this train
Ride the wrong rails, live your life in vain
(What a shame)
Please now brother don't you ride this train
Ride the wrong rails, live your life in vain
(That's a long, long road)
