Tell me how
How I were you the one I confided in
I let into my life
You lied to me and you'll pay for, pay for
For all of the decisions you've made
There's no escape from what you've done

So this is who you really are
To think I trusted you
And now your words mean nothing to me
'Cause your actions speak the truth

I thought that I knew you
But somehow you fooled me
It's sad to see what you've turned, turned into Don't ask me who you really are Cause I wouldn't know

So this is who you really are
To think I trusted you
And now your words mean nothing to me
'Cause your actions speak the truth

How can you be with me

It's like the sky is falling down around you now and there's no, no escape (x2)

So this is who you really are
To think I trusted you
And now your words mean nothing to me
'Cause your actions speak the truth

Speak the truth (2x)

Cause your actions speak the truth

Speak the truth (x2)

Your actions speak the truth
