Their words hit like bullets
Straight through the heart
Meant only to destroy your beauty
But still I see you through it all
I won't be sidetracked
This is my way to show
The fire you lit inside of me
Only you (living through me)
Blood red eyes of hate
Their hostile grip held tightly
I won't be sidetracked
I want to be evidence of what you've done
I want to be evidence of what you've done
I want to be evidence of what you've done
Take it all
I'm not my own
