Swim, Swim for your lives
Things are getting restless out at sea
Swim, Swim for your lives
Things are getting restless out at sea

Can you see the lighthouse
As we push you under
Can you see the light
As we push you further from shore

Can we hear their cries
Over the storm
Will we reach out to help
I'm thinking no

I'm convinced that they're drowning out there
(I'll be standing on the dry shore)
I'm still convinced that this
This isn't the way it's supposed to be
(I'll be safe from the storm)

We're all dressed up
Like something we're not
You'd better

Swim, Swim for your lies
Things are getting restless out at sea

God knows all the secrets
That we've that we've hidden in our hearts
God knows all the secrets
That we've hidden in the dark

Swim, Swim for your lives
Things are getting restless out at sea
Swim, Swim for your lies
Things are getting restless out at sea

Can you see the lighthouse
As we push you under
Can you see the light
As we push you further from shore

Can we hear their cries
Over the storm
Will we reach out to help
I'm thinking no

I'm convinced that they're drowning out there
(I'll be standing on the dry shore)
I'm still convinced that this
This isn't the way it's supposed to be
(I'll be safe from the storm)

We're all dressed up
Like something we're not
You'd better

Swim, Swim for your lies
Swim, Swim for your lies

Swim, Swim for your lies
Swim, Swim for your lies
Things are getting restless out at sea

God knows all your secrets
God knows all my secrets
God knows all the evil that we've hidden in our hearts
