Barbara, They're coming for you
Run before they arrive
Sounds insane the unburied dead
Coming back to life

Better board up this place
We'll see if we survive this thing
They won't stay dead
You've got to kill their brains
Watch out their on their way

Lock the doors and turn the lights down
Grab your gun and turn the lights
All hell is breaking loose
Murder is everywhere
This could be the end of it all for you and me

I can hear them everywhere
I've got my shotgun loaded ere
They won't stay dead
You've got to kill their brains
Watch out their on their way
Lock the doors and turn the lights down
Grab your gun and turn the lights low

Barbara, Barbara it's time to focus here
Barbara, Barbara face it your brothers dead
We need some help
They won't stay dead
We need help they're eating human flesh
I don't want to die
We need some help

They won't stay dead
You've got to kill their brains
Watch out their everywhere
Lock the doors and turn the lights down
Grab your gun and turn the lights down low

Oh now it feels so strange
Is this really, Really happening
Go ahead, Grab that gun and finish me
