so here
so here you are now in the wake of your dreams you're standing so close to all of this why do you keep doubting yourself you've done this before you said you'd die for the chance to be here this is your time to let go you only have this moment you've waited for so long

to be right here

now you look in the mirror and you tell yourself that this is what you want you'd be a fool if you didn't act on this now just tell yourself you can do this cause it's all you want

did you ever think
did you ever dream
that you'd be here
now is the time for you to show

they say (they say) that there's nothing to you since when (since when) do their words define who you are

it's your time forget what they are saying about you don't waste another moment this is your only chance you've worked so hard to get here don't ever forget that

they say that there's nothing to you since when do their words define who you are
