Best night of my life
The blood and dirt remind me that I'm alive
I failed to see this coming
When all the signs pointed at you

I should have known it was you
I should have seen in your eyes

It's twisted how you set me up
I never thought that you were who you are
To think I trusted in you
When this was always part of your plan

I should have known it was you
I should have seen in your eyes

Tie me up behind this truck
So that I won't forget you
Keep dragging me just like you are
You know I won't forget you face

I'm holding on for my revenge
'Cause if I die tonight then you get away
The pain is not the issue
Just think of what I'll do to you

I should have known it was you
I should have seen in your eyes

Tie me up behind this truck
So that I won't forget you
Keep dragging me just like you are
You know I won't forget your face

Forget you face, your face
Forget your face

I can taste my sweet revenge
You know that we'll meet again
I can taste my sweet revenge
You know that we'll meet again

I failed to see this coming
When all the signs pointed at you

Tie me up behind this truck
So that I won't forget you
Keep dragging me just like you are
You know I won't forget your face

Forget you face, your face
Forget you face, your face
