Forced out of sleep
the dream was to real
And on the other side
i was you and you were blind Forced into deep no dream that could heal
the feeling of disbelief as I was you and you were blind

11. Childsplay Part II

[music: Bernt A. Moen, lyrics: Tchart]

Sun setting on a sweet summers day
The sound of children playing a wicked game Leaving stains, on the soul
Twilight crawled across the sky
Did anyone say goodbye?
Did anyone see you?

The playground is empty now
The game is over
Lying on my back
The Game Is Over
