Amanda don't you know
That I still walk around
This foggy round about
When I get back in town.
I was a different man
From five seconds ago
Any you're a different woman,
That's for certain,
I don't know a thing about.

Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man.

Amanda don't you know
I wasn't strong enough
And in your wild mind
I wasn't smart enough.
I was a different kid
From fifteen years ago
And you're a different woman,
That's for certain,
I wanna know about about.

Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man.

I'm not playin' with your mind...
Unless you think I am.
'Cause you're crushing my heart
Like a battering ram.

Is this some kind of love
That only hate would understand?
Amanda, I couldn't be your man.
