and just because you think i am a fool/and don't seem to want to listen/doesn't mean i didn't hear you/or wasn't paying any attention/'cause i've said all that i have to say/and i will return to you/on some other foreign day.

hear the lies/tell a joke/bored for life/indwelling in your sociality/i'm a mistake waiting to happen....

i cannot dream if i am a fly upon your wall/and just because you cannot see me/doesn't mean i'm never there/ because you have got a thing/that i really like/a kiss or two on just because/ doesn't mean that i think of you.
