I declare I don't care no more
I'm burning up and out and growing bored
In my smoked out boring room

My hair is shagging in my eyes
Dragging my feet to hit the street tonight
To drive along these shoot town lights

I'm not growin' up
I'm just burnin' out
And I stepped in line
To walk amongst the dead

Oh, apathy has rained on me
And now I'm feeling like a soggy dream
So close to drowning but I don't mind

I've lived inside this mental cave
Throw my emotions in the grave
The hell! Who needs them anyway?

I'm not growin' up
I'm just burnin' out
And I stepped in line
To walk amongst the dead

I'm not growin' up
I'm just burnin' out
And I stepped in line
To walk amongst the dead, dead

I'm not growin' up
I'm just burnin' out
And I stepped in line
To walk amongst the dead

I'm not growin' up
I'm just burnin' out
And I stepped in line
To walk amongst the dead, dead
