Breaking in a sweat,
Like a bomb threat,
If you're with hatin' out,

Nothing left to lose,
Didn't make the fuse,
Another break in your throw out,

Getting off the binge,
Get a second wind,
Another promise the pain can change,

Got a broken wing,
Hear the angles sing,
When the signal is out of range,

Ain't it strange?
Ain't it strange?

Carpe diem,
A battle cry,
Are we all too young to die?

Ask a reason and no reply,
Are we all too young to die?

Aching, I'm living,
Aching, I'm killing,
Express my demons,
Alright,

Over go the night,
Bullies scaping by,
Dominating by pacify,

Feeling out of look,
Where my traffic sunk,
When you're feeling so left behind,

Getting off the binge,
Get a second wind,

Another promise the pain can change,

Got a broken wing,
Hear the angels sing,
When the signal is out of range,

Ain't it strange?
Ain't it strange?

Carpe diem,
A battle cry,
Are we all too young to die?

Ask a reason and no reply,
Are we all too young to die?

Aching, I'm living,
Aching, I'm killing,
Express my demons,
Alright,

Aching, I'm living,
Aching, I'm killing,
Express your demons,
Alright,

Carpe diem,
A battle cry,
Are we all too young to die?

Ask a reason,
And no reply,
Are we all too young to die?

Carpe diem,
A battle cry,
Are we all too young to die?

Ask a reason,
And no reply,
Are we all too young to die?
