See a young girl so soft and blonde
Doesn't attack me, but she did once
Intoxications in her veins
Sweet young boy plays with her brain

Lydia'll bring to life
What are your chance not to oblige?
Putting his hand on her thigh
Ability has now been ripped
Take it away, I'd rather sit

Sweet children
Sweet children
Sweet children
Remember when

Johnny's playing fun and games
Or else he's in the storage shed
Running from the light of day
Or maybe lie and celebrate

The funny circus from his head
Follow me, if you understand
I'll trick her so she'll do it
Then I'll sing and now we run

Sweet children
Sweet children
Sweet children
Remember when

Sweet children
Sweet children
Sweet children
Remember when
