Can't restart
It feels like we're weighed down
And justified, many lies
Don't explain to me why you tried
To take my eyes

Hold on,
Take my hand
Clam down so you can understand
Touch me
An leave me breathless again
Leave me breathless again

Feel my bones,
They're buried deep in my yard
For you to find, stuck behind
Wall of silence won't you keep me blind
I don't mind

Hold on,
Take my hand
Clam down so you can understand
Touch me
An leave me breathless again
Leave me breathless again

Can't restart
It feels like we're weighed down
And justified, many lies
Don't explain to me why you tried
To take my eyes

Hold on,
Take my hand
Clam down so you can understand
Touch me
An leave me breathless again
Leave me breathless again
You leave me breathless again
