He's always staring at me
He's always fuckin' with me
Softly whispering to me
He makes promises he never keeps
If you should wonder why
I never seem to try
To turn my back and walk away
I'm killin' myself every day
It keeps on eating my soul
7 days a week
The ghost keeps on calling
It's killin' all my sleep
He's always firing me up
He's telling me I need no friends
He's saying that he will be back
He's saying I've got him instead
Oh where's the man I knew
I feel afraid and a bit confused
Although I pray for another shot
I know that he is all that I've got
It keeps on eating my soul
7 days a week
The ghost keeps on calling
It's killin' all my sleep
