I awake at break of dawn each morning
Look around to find her gone
Disapered without me
A little note is all she left behind her
Four short words in one line
Lies infront of me
Sometimes...

She's alright
Can't denie
She's is doing fine

All alone I stare into my mirror
Knowone Dared to come for me
Laugh away my thorts
I guess I'll just have to try an move on

Rearrange my life without not that she'd know how somehow....

(She's alright)
(Can't denie)
(She's is doing fine(x2))
(Without me(x2))(x2)
