All the words that you said
Made you matter in my head
I was tied to the thought of you
Thinkin' back to the day
That I found you on my way
To a place I was goin' to
Simplify all these years
In another round of tears
I'm so lost when it comes to you
Broken in and again
Now you're everywhere I've been
So it's hard to deny the view

Did you know I had you goin'?
You got your heart back
It was stolen
And there's nothin'
I can do at all

And it's still there
On the road we had
And it's alright
Keep the memories tied to your heart dear
And the words will be enough

All the words that you say
Had me lovin' you away
And my heart don't wanna see
Let me know you believe
That the world is made to leave
And you're here to belong to me

Did you know I had you goin'
I got your heart back
It was stolen
And there's nothin'
You can do at all

And it's still there
On the road we had
And it's alright
Keep your memories tied to your heart dear

And the words will be enough
Oh Oh Oh Ohhhhh
Oh Oh Oh Ohhhhh
Oh Oh Oh Ohhhhh
Oh Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh

It's you against the sunlight
Ohhhhh
Always
It's you against the sunlight
Ohhhh
I'll wait
It's you against your word
Ohhhh
Always
I'll wait
I'll wait
I'll wait
I'll wait

And it's still there
All the love we had
And it's alright
Keep the memories tied to your heart dear
And the words will be enough

And it's still there
All the love we had
And it's alright
Keep the memories tied to your heart dear
And the words will be enough

Always
I'll wait
I'll wait
I'll wait
Always
I'll wait
I'll wait
I'll wait
