Through the darkness we will fight- deviance leads to destruction- the righteous path- no obstruction- the fate of all life is in peril- we must make injustice sterile-liberation- dawn of freedom-exploitation of all life must cease- we must fight for our existence- oppressions shackles we will release- and to all those who refuse-its your evil that we despise- and if you do not chance-you will meet your sudden demise- equality by all means- we can settle for no less- to ensure the rights of the innocent- we will confront- and put your evil to rest- justice coming- existence of truth- images of change- am i getting through- lets rid these gaps of ignorance- its time for crucial change- to rearragne the mentalities- that are so fucking deranged
