When I takes a look around
I see the whole world going down
From the look in your eyes I can tell
You see what I'm seeing
Once again I start to sink
I reach for you, my missing link
Like it or not, I'll keep you going down with me

You came to me
Dying to save my soul
But there was nothing
Nothing for you to grab a hold
You thought you faith was strong enough
To save a drowning man
You lost your footing reachin' for my hand
You lost your faith when I pulled you in Gave you nothing to believe in

Together we'll never
Together we'll never
Have to see the world again
Together we'll never
Together we'll never
Have to see the world again

Together we'll never have to see the world
Together we'll never see the world again
Together we'll never have to see the world
Together we'll never see the world again

Tooled with damnation I
Penetrated your soul
Knew you needed something to fill
That gaping hole
So I gave you nothing, everything I had
Is that why your pretty little eyes are
Lookin' so sad

Together we'll never Understand
Together we'll never
I had

Have to see the world again
To pull you down
Together we'll never
It gets so lonely
Together we'll never
Have to see the world again
With nothing to believe in
Nothing
