I've been the one to party until the end lookin' for the afterparty to begin I'm going down to lalaland
I hope to see you soon in lalaland
Something 'bout those little pills unreal
the thrills they yield until they kill a million braincells Now, I need to go who is gonna give me a ride to the aftershow?
me?
I hope that i have enough change so I can make my brain rearrange
I'm going down to lalaland
I hope to see you soon in lalaland
Something 'bout those little pills unreal
the thrills they yield until they kill a million braincells Oh, what have I done what happened to the mornin'
I passed the time away being high today (Ugh, I got to find a way to fill the space in time)
Something 'bout those little pills unreal

the thrills they yield until they kill a million braincells

Lalaland that's were I need to be Lalaland is the place that all sets me free

(has anybody seen my brain today? Hey?)
