Well, I ain't interested in the clothes that you wear
In the car that you drive or the cut of your hair
Honey, you got somethin', I can't compare
And I've been thinkin' 'bout you

And I don't really care about the weather outside
And I don't want to talk about national pride
All that I need for to be satisfied
Is a woman who's nothing like me

Love is for fools, yes, a fool such as I
And I can't tell you how and I can't tell you why
Ah, but honey I just can't deny you at all

And I don't want to be your 'Two-Weekend Lover'
Your 'Boy In The Bag', your 'One Or The Other'
And I ain't looking for a wife or a mother
But honey, I've been thinkin' 'bout you

Well, maybe you're wrong and maybe you're right
And maybe we can sit here and argue all night
Or maybe you just better turn out the lights
'Cause honey, I've been thinkin' 'bout you

Honey, I've been thinkin' 'bout you for a while
And it's drivin' me mad, yes, it's crampin' my style
But I ain't askin' you to walk down the aisle but I

Suitcase to staircase to candlelit room
Where I sift through the silk in the air and perfume
And I'll be lovin' you baby, I'll be lovin' you soon
'Cause honey, I've been thinkin' 'bout you

Now I don't really care about your hot-blooded sister
I'm sure there's a man for her to love her and miss her
I didn't mean nothin', I just happened to kiss her
But honey, I was thinkin' 'bout you

I don't really care about your daddy's Corvette
Your house in the hills or your pink private jet
Or that ring on your finger you say, you regret
'Cause honey, I've been thinkin' 'bout you

Oh, rat race to car chase, to trains in the station
Everyone wants to change their location
Everyone wants some new inspiration
But I can't stop thinkin' 'bout you
