Tell me baby, tell me baby
What you want, what you want
Well, it's 95 miles between here and Mobile
And I ain't got nothing but time to kill
You tell me what you want

Don't mistreat me, don't mistreat me
I won't hurt you, I won't hurt you
You can love me fast, you can love me long
You can love me all night or all day long
Don't mistreat me, honey don't

I'm gonna move out, I've gotta move out
Away from here, away from here
Gonna build my house in the mud and sticks
Just me, myself and the devil in a fix
Gonna move out away from here

Operator, operator
Dial me Jesus, dial me Jesus
Now I been waiting so long, so patiently
I been waiting too long just to be set free
Dial Jesus, dial him now

Sun is bleeding, sun is bleeding
On my head, it's on my head
Yeah, they call me boy, they call me kid
But they don't understand a word I said
Sun's bleeding on my head

Take me home baby, take me home baby
Let me be your other man
Well, I ain't good looking and I ain't too bright
But I can keep you busy in the middle of the night
So take me, take me home

Seven sisters, seven sisters
Are on my mind, are on my mind
They all live apart, they don't ever speak
So I can have me one every day of the week

Seven sisters are on my mind
