Light, I've been searching
For some answers
And I cannot grasp
My piece of mind
And I wonder
My direction
Where I'm going and what I have seen
Keeps me reeling
Makes me question
Things I thought I knew
Forsaken truth
And reflection
Makes me weary pulls me under
Chorus:
I see the light
As I walk outside
And I know
The horizon's lost
In the landscape of my soul
Light, fills the shadows
Of my memory
And it shines down on
My piece of mind
Keeps me going
Through the seasons
But it's running out
Light, fills the shadows
Of my memory
And it shines down on
My piece of my mind
Keeps my going
Through the seasons
But it's running out
