I wanna shoot you down now for the things you did.
From far away I came, got away from seeing red.

I came a long way to see you,
Such a long way to see you.
I came a long way to see you,
Now I wish you were dead, wish you were dead.

I came a long way to see you now I wish you were dead,
Such a long way to see you, put the gun to my head.
Wanna shoot you down for the things you said,
Came a long way to see you now I wish you were dead.

I came a long way to see you,
Now I wish you were dead.
Such a long way to see you,
Put the gun to my head.

Got me on the run, loaded up my gun,
Blowing up the spot, hiding 'cause I'm hot.
Fire is my friend, marking where I've been,
Committing every sin, I'd do it all again.

Be on the lookout for the amber waves of grain,
(Heading for your street).
The green lady moved away and changed her name,
(Feel my pain).

I came a long way to see you,
Now I just want to leave you.
Came a long way to see you,
Now I wish you were dead, wish you were dead.

Came a long way to see you now I wish you were dead,
Such a long way to see you, put the gun to my head.
Wanna shoot you down for the things you said,
Came a long way to see you now I wish you were dead.

Feel the pain, coming up through the sewer,
Through the house on the hill, through the baltimore
buses,
Got a license to kill, take to your own love.

If the truth be told, I'm in love with this city and I'm out of control, I'm out of control,
But I live in this city and I'm out of control, I'm out of control.
But I live in this city and I'm out of control.
