Drunk on fears and past tense love
Is this what Ive been dreaming of Eyes that will not give me rest
From the things I cannot hide

Dont tempt me
Dont tempt me dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger
Dont tempt me
Dont tempt me dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger

Fragile hands that hold me up
What have my nightmares become
A guilty conscience has no shame
To occupy your every day

Dont tempt me
Dont tempt me dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger
Dont tempt me no
Dont tempt me dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger
x2

Walking on the fault lines
The shaking of our waking life
Keeping distance from the rest
Of those who know themselves the best

Dont tempt me
Dont tempt dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger
Dont tempt me no
Dont tempt dont
Ive got my finger on the trigger
x3
