Yeah, I been burned
Guess I'll never ever learn
I get carried away
Having tasted better days
From the moment we met
I find it hard to forget
Because my heart remembers

Geronimo, Geronimo
Count me in, playin' to win
Willing to risk it all

No more waiting
It's my turn
Got a wing-span I have earned
It's amazing what's achieved
When you've chosen to believe
Haven't got there yet
No, not the safest of bets
Still, my heart surrenders

Geronimo, Geronimo
Count me in, playin' to win
Willing to risk it all
Geronimo, Geronimo
Count me in, playin' to win
Willing to risk it all
Geronimo, Geronimo
Count me in, playin' to win
Willing to risk it all
Geronimo, Geronimo
Count me in, playin' to win
Willing to risk it all
Willing to risk it all
Willing to risk it all
And ready for sure to fall
