Traveled near, traveled far
Chased down dreams, followed shooting stars
Learning the meaning of success
And other things that I must confess
Something inside is lacking
And I find my mind backtracking
No matter where I roam...
Massachusetts is my home

Wife and kids, I am truly blessed
How I feel? Give you one guess
Life on the road is lots of fun
When the show is over, when the day is done
Something inside is lacking
And I find my mind backtracking
No matter where I roam...
Massachusetts is my home

I got to find my way where
There's so much we could share
I got to find my way home, because I feel so alone

It's good to hear that folk guitar
Lets you know just who you are
Highways have a time and place
Reflections here we all must face
Something inside is lacking
And I find my mind backtracking
No matter where I roam...
Massachusetts is my home
