So my love
If all good things must end
And endings, they say endings are also new beginnings

I tell my heart
Here's to a brand new start
Arrivals and departures are part of ev'ry journey

The times, they were so good
I know I could, I could surrender to the treasured memory
Go... travel to that place... that always comforts me

So my friend
On this I can depend
These mem'ries, treasured mem'ries forever calling to me

The times, they were so good
Go back if I could
Remember how we danced
You and I
How we danced
You and I

Come along each time I hear you calling to me
Come along each time I hear you calling to me

That's just the way it will be
That's just the way it will be
That's just the way it will be
