Can peace keep this from happening
A disease his words are spreading it

You must learn to trust no one
Smile as we charge into the sun
And when it's over we can say
I saw it on tv

No there's no stopping it
And you won't believe your eyes it's time
The last message we tried to send
Fell into the wrong hands
I can't remember did you make up anything

You must learn to trust no one
Smile as we charge into the sun
And when it's over we can say
I saw it on tv

Let the truth unfold
We're waiting for an answer
The silence is our hymn
Our fist, our rage
And it's time
To take back what is mine

You must learn to trust no one
Smile as we charge into the sun
And when it's over we can say
I saw it on tv

You must learn to trust no one
Smile as we charge into the sun
And when it's over we can say
I saw it on tv
