When magic doesn't feel like your scene
When life gets rough cuz you're a pop star queen
You've gotta catch a train to milwaukee
We'll catch a show like HSM 3

Ooo baby the road isn't too far
Ooo darling, I know you're a rockstar
We'll fly away and you'll see
It's not so bad to be a pop star queen

Selena, you've got me now
Selena, under a spell somehow

I'm watching disney channel late at night
Right before I get to bed, in my blanket wrapped tight
Cinderella dance, at night I dream
I wonder, Selena, do you think of me?

Ooo baby the road isn't too far
Ooo darling, I know you're a rockstar
We'll fly away and you'll see
It's not so bad to be a pop star queen

Selena, you've got me now
Selena, under a spell somehow

Who's got best tube vids around?
Who's got the voice with the best sound?
Who's got the lines with the most wit?
Who pulls them off with all the talent?
Who's got the style and the dance moves down?
Who make anybody fall to the ground?
Who can cast spells better than sabrina?
She's terribly cute and her name's selena.

Selena, you've got me now
Selena, under a spell somehow

Selena, you've got me now
Selena, under a spell somehow
