I envy every second you've spent all alone
(I can tell)
With nothing to remember when I'm lying on my own
(I can tell)
Hold back from dependence, the harmless lesson spell
(I can tell)
Holding onto something forgetting that I can tell
(I can tell)

Dancing with convenience, tempting one mistake
(I can tell)
Falter for the moment I know you'll never take
(I can tell)
Maybe you are perfect, maybe I'm the same
(I can tell)
Somehow we're no different, somehow it's a shame
(I can tell)
