In a nightmare static you surrender everything I'm not I would turn around and panic but my heart carefully managed to stop
I will bury all my reasons in a cold and stark familiar place
I won't give a damn about it but I cannot go on living this way

I hope to see you burn out Where you're headed you will always land up on the wrong side of the red
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret

I was holding it together, I was waiting for the lights to change
But it all amounts to nothing now I wish I could remember your face
Can you justify the cause for every single harm you've ever done
While you're reaching for tomorrow but for you tomorrow never becomes

I want to see you burn out Where you're headed you will always land up on the
wrong side of the red
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret
Where you're headed you will always land up on the
wrong side of the red
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret

And you say you're on your own then I say you're not alone

Where you're headed you will always land up on the
wrong side of the red
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret
Where you're headed you will always land up on the

wrong side of the red
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry now it's too
late for regret
I don't want to hear you say you're sorry
