Looks worse without you, looks worse without you
Loose words without you, loose words without you.
Quickly march on question marks I only consider.
Understand the dust will fall and haunt remorse, the
hole in your head.

Turn away, and dare to find, some happiness and don't forget,
We'll never, never.

Take turns without you, take turns without you,
Truth hurts without you, truth hurts without you.
Quickly march on question marks I only now consider.
Understand the dust will fall and haunt remorse, the
hole in your head.

Turn away, and dare to find, some happiness and don't forget,
We'll never, never.
Turn away, and dare to find, some happiness and don't forget,
We'll never, never.

That's enough. [x8]
The hole in your head.

Turn away, and dare to find, some happiness and don't forget,
We'll never, never.
Turn away, and dare to find, some happiness and don't forget,
We'll never, be the same.
