Troubled time on my mind
I need you now circumstance in your hands
Show me how to escape fears that take my mind off you
I can't explain how you make my heart feel new

You have a healing
In a world so unkind
When I rest in You Lord
I can finally find

Joy
The kind that comes from above
That only comes from your love into my life
What about the joy
The kind that I know is real
Doesn't matter how I feel you're on my side
I'm trusting in your word
Believing all of the time
Even in my weakness it's the strength of my life
Everyday in everyway it's
Joy

I smile inside Here again
I have been worrying
About today and you say believe in me
Believe in me

I know you're right forgive me please
See I forget you have met my every need
You have been a healing in a world that's so unkind
When I rest in You Lord I can finally find

Joy
The kind that comes from above
That only comes from your love into my life
What about the joy
The kind that I know is real
Doesn't matter how I feel you're on my side
I'm trusting in your word
Believing all of the time
Even in my weakness it's the strength of my life

Everyday in everyway it's
Joy
