I'm introduced to a plague of ignorance
Might be my own but I can't be too sure Looking to be rescued with no sign of deliverance
That can't exist, it can't exist

Hearts can grow so cold in the heat of the moment
It freezes over like the devil's abode
Don't look so troubled
You're the salt of the Earth now
We can't regress, we can't regress

Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground

Hope can dry up like the LA river
But droughts never last forever
A thirst for more is just human nature
We can't regress, no we can't regress

Socially conscious of self-consciously social Show my true colors like a waving flag
Make up in strife for direction that I lack
We can't regress, we can't regress

Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground

Dancing on their grave
To the sound of savage victory
With the power we possess
We can't regress, we can't regress

Sing a song of freedom,
Pay homage to the fathers

That paved the way for sonic liberty
A note that rings so true in all of us
We can't regress, We can't regress

Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down

Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
Back to higher ground
Reaching up, we won't back down
