It was a fucked up day around the world
Never the less a celebration, that's for sure Phone call at 11 am said something bad happend to a friend

Standing out in the road in the middle of nowhere
A regular occurance in the state of affairs
Things always seem to work out this way
But why couldn't it have happend any other day

Well I couldn't believe it
I was filled with rage
You know I couldnt feel it
Nuthin else for me to say but

Happy new year
I hope it all works out for you
Happy new year
I hope it was a dream come true
Happy new year
At least it was supposed to be
Happy new year
We'll get through it, you and me

When a new year begins
Nothin is differnet
A cound down to what? nothin has changed
Were in the same situation that we were before
Trying to get ourselves home right back to L.A.
Reality sets in of how things went sour
And how come the excuses only do so much
This new years resolution I must insist
Is to never have another fuckin day like this

Well I couldn't believe it
I was filled with rage
You know I couldnt feel it
Nuthin else for me to say but
Happy new year
I hope it all works out for you
Happy new year
I hope it was a dream come true
Happy new year

At least it was supposed to be
Happy new year
We'll get through it, you and me

You know I couldn't believe it
I was filled with rage
You know I couldn't feel it
Nuthin else for me to say but
Happy new year
I hope it all works out for you
Happy new year
I hope it was a dream come true
Happy new year
At least it was supposed to be
Happy new year
We'll get through it, you and me

Oh happy new year
