Slam the door shut again,
We can't let them hear our voices anymore.
Well I'm afraid that it isn't up to me,
We have no say in this matter anymore.
But the only way to know is to just wait and see,
We're waiting so patiently.

[Chorus:]

At the bottom of the sea, we will rest in peace
'Cause there's no one around
To hear you make a sound,
This ship is now sinking.

So sink, well fucking sink,
And no one will remember that this was ever here.
Don't laugh, this isn't funny now,
This conspiracy of silence can't be happening.
But the only way to know is to just wait and see
All the witches will float and all the innocent will sink.

[Chorus]

The only way to know is to just wait and see
We're waiting so patiently.

[Chorus]

The ship is now sinking...sinking.

[Chorus]
