Saw your picture today
Oh my, looking so fine
Well I sure hope the world
Is treating you, treating you kind
But if you get tried
Of this crazy changing world

Don't you hesiate, it ain't never to late
To pick yourself up darling
Won't you bring it on back home to me
Oh bring it on back home to me, yeah

You know all your far of travel
Babe it won't ease your mind
You know someone said
That home is where the heart is
It seems like every time you leave
You got to take my hand
And love what a few good times
Of this crazy changing world, yeah, yeah, yeah

Don't you hesiate, it ain't never to late
Pick yourself up darling
Won't you bring it on back home to me, yeah
Darling bring it on back home, yeah, yeah

Like a few good times
Of this crazy changing world, yeah, yeah, yeah
Don't you hesiate, it ain't never to late
Pick yourself up now darling
Hide away your foolish pride darling
And won't you bring it on back home to me
Oh bring it on back home, yeah, yeah
Won't you bring yourself back home
To daddy and mama yeah
Bring yourself home I'm waiting darling
Oh yeah
