Everybody's talking ain't nobody telling the truth
Everybody's talking they don't really want the truth
They need to mind their own business
They don't know the trouble that I've been through

Everybody's talking they don't tell the story right, mmm
mmm
Everybody's talking they don't want the story right
It's hard to live your life in colour
And tell the truth in black and white

Yeah I hear the wolf's a howlin'
I feel so all alone
Someone don't come to save me
They'll find this man is dead and gone

The whole damn world's a mine field
And I'm trying to watch my step
I want someone to count on
When I need a little help

Yeah I hear the wolf's a howlin'
And I feel so all alone
If someone don't come and save me
They'll find this man is dead and gone

Everybody's talking nobody telling the truth, ooo ooo
Everybody's talking don't really want to know the truth
They need to mind their own business
They don't know the trouble that I've been through
