why do birds fly away when you wish them to stay?
oh what it would feel to be flying over cathedrals why can't i free the chains that are inside of me?
oh what it would mean to be flying over cathedrals

cathedrals on lonely nights will never see the dawn of the light all my sins are going to thrive silently guilty here whenever you're near

why do birds climb the sky before waving goodbye?
oh what it would feel to be flying over cathedrals
why can't i chaperone? must i go it alone?
