northern winds come Â‘round again and i canÂ‘t get too far long the days recovering and there you are i canÂ‘t believe your faith in me thereÂ‘s nothing in my way while everyone else stands around and prays for someday

i used to make believe that everything was going to be okay itÂ‘’s just an ordinary morning with a humble helping hand now that youÂ‘re right next to me iÂ‘m starting to think that everything's okay itÂ‘’s just an ordinary morning with an ordinary man it was nearly ten years ago when we were in high school while youÂ‘ve been with me all this time i never knew youÂ‘re giving me the kind of chance that iÂ‘ve only dreamed of and i could never thank you quite enough so thank you now weÂ‘re harboring a new world order and welcoming the changing because everything will change
