Well she wanted to be with me
But she wanted to sail the sea and
Make her grandfather proud the way her
Father did in 1960

Like I said she wanted to be with me
But she wanted to sail the sea and
So she took all my love and money
And left me here in my misery

So don't tell me, don't tell me
How it's going to be alright
Don't tell me, don't tell me
How it's going to be alright
You don't know a damn thing about my life
So why don't you sit down and listen

Well she wanted to be with me
But she wanted to sail the sea and
Drown the weight of the world
Beneath the blanket of the Atlantic sea

Like I said she wanted to be with me

But she wanted to sail the sea and
So she never came back to me
And that's all there is to that story

So don't tell me, don't tell me
How it's going to be alright
Don't tell me, don't tell me
How it's going to be alright
You don't know a damn thing about my life
You don't know a damn thing about my life

Dreaming and dreaming and dreaming and dreaming
Until we wake up, until we wake up
Wake up (2x)

So don't tell me, don't tell me
How it's going to be alright
Don't tell me, don't tell me

How it's going to be alright
You don't know a damn thing about my life
Oh no, you don't know a damn thing about my life
