Don't waste the water.
Don't drink it now,
Because this desert keeps growing,
And we might never get out.
Besides, we're not even moving.
We're just standing around,
But I must admit that when it comes to this,
I'm as scared as the rest.
Feels like something's hunting me down.
It'll end up to be like those films that you've seen,
Where they they bury the bones that will never be found.
But I do, but I do, but I do.
But I do, but I do, but I do.
But I do, but I do, but I do.
I do, I do, but I do, do.
