Tell me what you wanted to hear
Let me do the right thing
And if it's ever this clear
I will only say it once
Just let me turn the amps way up
Let me do the wrong thing
So you can hear nothing
Just say what you wanted to say
Then I guess I die tonight
And if I die tonight
They're only getting nowhere
Let me go on
I cannot stand these talks, dear
It's never resolved
You only tell me anyone
We only run around
And a different place to be
Could be just like me
If it's a different time
You would go on
