I used up your compassion, so I come to make a trade
You can ?leave/hate? me but just love me in return
And if I know where to find you, I'll stay out of your way
I won't come beg to borrow all the happiness you earned
I'll just slide back down to the bottom
While you make your place in the hills

There's nothing that the road cannot heal
There's nothing that the road cannot heal
Washed under the black tar, gone beneath my wheels
There's nothing that the road cannot heal

Ã,ÂiClaro quÃfÂ© sÃfÂ!

They say the sun won't burn forever but that's a science to exact
I can prove it, watch, we're crossing the state line See those headlights coming towards us? That's someone going back
To a town they said they'd never, yeah, they swore it on their life
But you can't break out of a circle
That you never knew you were in

There's nothing that the road cannot heal
There's nothing that the road cannot heal
Washed under the black tar, gone beneath my wheels
There's nothing that the road cannot heal

Some will spend their precious time
Trying to decorate their lives
Taking measurements for some new look they want
So from one to ten, ten's exactly what I am
Zero being everything I'm not Tell me what you like
Is it less than five
Is it less than five

There's nothing that the road cannot heal
There's nothing that the road cannot heal
When I make it to Moab I'll get my canteen filled

There's nothing that the road cannot heal

Washed under the black tar, gone beneath my wheels
There's nothing that the road cannot heal
