"Poison"

This myth becomes beneath us now
Can not sweat this poison out
It's in my skin and in my mouth
When I sing, these lies come out

Looks are deep but so's this lake
Oh princess flee, make mistakes
Make it seem like I've done right so I can sleep well tonight

And it ain't the cost
And you ain't the boss
It ain't like I'm not on your side
It ain't like I tried to keep you
When your secret is you want another guy
You're on my mind

You squeeze them ideas out
And I just forgot math
Got to make some space for pain

Cuz them words just left your mouth but what did it change now for my destination train Welcome in
We've been waiting
We've been waiting

Drinking blood don't keep me young
It's just the taste on my tongue
Makes me stay up late and talk
Destroy yourself, what the fuck.
